

2008 Renegade Ridge Estate

Tasting Notes: This wine opens with aromas of fresh red raspberries, black plum, spice cake and a hint of smoky earth. There are cassis notes here along with tamarind and marzipan, white flower petals, pfefferneuse and Oregon blackberry jam. 2008 is a weighted version of Renegade Ridge with incredible density and mass yet with characteristic focus and length. This is a captivating wine, very charming on the palate, possessing the ability to grasp and then hold your attention.

Vineyard: 12 acres, east facing slope

Farming: By hand using celestially influenced practices

Appellation: Dundee Hills AVA

Cellaring: 3 to 8 years

Clones: Dijon 114, 667, ASW2

Archery Summit

800.732.8822 • www.archerysummit.com